

COLOSSO DI
SAN CARLO BORROMEO

THE STATUE OF SAINT CHARLES

Safety rules for access to the park and terrace of the Statue of San Carlo:

- Maximum one person at a time in the ticket office.
- Disposable gloves will be distributed.
- It is necessary to keep the safety distance of one meter from other visitors in the whole park and terrace area.

Anti-Covid Rules to access the Interior of the Statue

In in addition to the anti-covid rules necessary to access the park and the panoramic terrace listed above, the following restrictions apply:

- The flow of visitors inside the statue will be limited by the ticketing staff.
- Only visitors with “green pass” are admitted.
- Children under 12 cannot visit the inner part of the Statue.
- Families of up to 6 people are admitted at the same time
- Individuals can enter one person at a time
- To get inside the Statue, the use of disposable gloves provided free of charge by Ambrosiana is mandatory.
- Visitors can stay inside the statue for no longer than 8 minutes
- Access to the interior of the statue is possible only if Piedmont is in “white zone”.

Other Warnings

- To protect their own safety, disabled people, blind people, people with heart diseases and pregnant women are prohibited from climbing inside the Statue.
- The ascent is not recommended for people suffering from vertigo or claustrophobia.
- It is forbidden to bring backpacks, bulky bags and umbrellas inside the Statue.
- It is forbidden to use photographic equipment or video cameras during the ascent and descent phase; these objects must be well fixed to the person’s body.
- It is forbidden to bring animals into the green area and into the statue.
- Safety harnesses and helmets are available upon request.
- The waiting time to go inside the statue can vary depending on the turnout (even over an hour); please, always check the waiting time at the ticket office before buying tickets.
- The staff is not responsible if the waiting time exceeds the forecasts communicated verbally.
- Upon reservation, groups of more than 20 people are allowed to stop inside the green area during the lunch break.

We inform you that the entire area inside the Statue of San Carlo is connected to an audio-video recording device, used in compliance with the current Privacy law.

San Carlo Church

- The Church of San Carlo is open on the same days and times as the Statue, according to the guidelines provided by the CEI.
- To enter, it is mandatory to wear a mask.

Thanks for your collaboration

The Direction